

COSTA
NAVARINO

INTERNATIONAL
ARCHAEOLOGY AWARD

The Laboratory of Archaeometry at the Department of History, Archaeology and Cultural Resources Management, University of the Peloponnese, initiated the establishment of the international award entitled COSTA NAVARINO – INTERNATIONALARCHAEOLOGY AWARD having as the main aim the nomination with this price to international acknowledged scholars activated at the fields of Archaeometry and Archaeological Science.

MEMBERS OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE

PROF.C. RENFREW, PROF. PHILIP BETANCOURT,

PROF. TH. REHREN, PROF. P. THEMELIS,

PROF. I. KAKOULLI, Dr. E. MILITSI, PROF. N. ZACHARIAS (President)

The ceremony took place at the Kalamata Dance Megaron on Tuesday May 17, 2016

The award was given to Dr. Yannis Maniatis, Research Director at the Laboratory of Archaeometry, NCSR "Demokritos" for his internationally distinguished level of scientific work in the fields of pottery analysis and radiocarbon dating and his outmost contribution to the promotion of Archaeometry both in Greece and Internationally.

Dr. Y. Maniatis presented a review of his research topics and made concluding remarks about his vision for the future if the field. An introductory speech about his carrier achievements was given by Prof. Th. Rehren.

The award, a specially made handmade pottery was handed by Prof. N. Zacharias in the presence also of the Committee Members Prof. P. Themelis, Prof. I. Kakoulli and Dr. E. Militsi.

The ceremony was under the aegis of the University of the Peloponnese, the Prefecture of the Peloponnese and Kalamata Municipality